Lleutenant Commander Barnett Talks of the Explosion.

COURT OF INQUIRY CONVENED.

No Experienced Divers Have Yet Examined the Wrecked Vessel-Spanish Battleship Vizcaya Enters

New York Harbor and is Saluted by the Fort.

HAVANA, Feb. 21.-Lieutenant Commander Barnett of the survey boat Bache, said to a correspondent: "You want the facts. I can tell you there are 95 chances out of 100 that the investigation will show that the forward magazine of the Maine did not blow up first, if it exploded at all, and that it was not the cause of the terrific consequences that followed. The condition of the wreck when first studied and a later careful scrutiny make this an almost absolute certainty-"

ME BEGINS WORK.

Court of Inquiry Into the Maine Disaster Convenes at Havana.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21. - The naval court of inquiry appointed to investigate the Maine disaster convened at Havana today. This news came to the navy department from Admiral Sicard at Key West.

This prompt action is undoubtedly due to the express direction from Secretary Long sent Saturday to have the investigation begun at the earliest possible moment.

Captain Sigsbee was heard from yesterday. His message goes to confirm the press reports of the events of Saturday in Havana harbor so far as they relate to the exploration of the wreck. It reads as follows:

"Only most experienced wrecking divers can do effective work on the Maine. In the upper works I can use service divers. Did some work yesterday but with little success. Parts of the Maine, especially the superstructure and connections, are one confused mass of metal."

The statement relative to experienced divers is explained at the navy department as no reflection upon the men now engaged in the work, being only volunteers from the enlisted men and not experienced divers.

Secretary Long said late yesterday, after looking over his telegraphic and mail correspondence, that it contained nothing of importance beyond the dis- by Rev. Mr. Dickie. patches above given. The secretary referred with satisfaction to the dispatch stating that the court of inquiry would assemble at Havana today. The plan had been for the court to meet at Key West, and after doing such work as was possible there, to proceed to Havana. But Mr. Long thought it was desirable to have the court proceed at once to Havana, where the inquiry could begin on the actual scene of disaster, and where porsonal inspections would aid in an intelligest judgment. Mr. Du Bosc, the Spanish charge'd affairs, feels that the assembling of the court of inquiry at Havana today is quite desirable, owing to the rapid rate at which the hull of the Maine is sinking in the soft bottom of the harbor.

Mr. Du Bosc expressed entire satisfaction with the plans by which the divers were operating, and said there was no justification for the talk about friction. Perfect harmony exists, he said, and on both sides, so far as he could see, there was every disposition to give the amplest facilities for investigation.

Captain Sigsbee has wired navy department: "No newspaper divers have been used on wreck of the Maine. One man engaged by me was subsequently bought up by a newspaper. I declined his services. Subsequently, on his being unconditionally released, I might have used him in charge of an officer in recovering bodies, but decided not to do

Is there anything more wholesome, more beautiful, more completely pleasing than a womanly woman? Such a woman is even tempered, intelligent, strong and healthy. Health really tells the whole story. Health means strong nerves and strong body, and they go far toward bringing good looks and amiability.

A woman worn and wearied by the dragging weaknesses peculiar to her sex, cannot be expected to find zest in any duty or amusement. Life is all one dead monotonous gloom to her. On her face is written the story of weakness and pain. The wholesomeness of health is lacking. The cheeks lack fullness, the eyes lack sparkle, the hair lacks luster. Doctors have learned to locate nine tenths of womanly sickness in the organs that ought above all others to be strong and healthy.

Sensitive women shudder at the thought of consulting a physician on such matters. A natural feeling of modesty makes them dread the examination and subsequent stereotyped treatment by "local applications" on which most doctors insist.

Much more often than not, this is un necessary. It should not be submitted to except as a last resort.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has cured thousands of severe cases of "fe-male weakness." It works in a natural, sensible way. It begins by subduing the inflammation that is always present. Then it strengthens and invigorates the whole body, particularly the organs distinctly feminine. It promotes regularity, cures inflammation and ulceration, and stops the debilitating drain caused by them. Of all dealers,

IN NEW YORK HARBOR.

Castle William. New York, Feb. 21.—The Spanish cruiser Vizcaya came up the bay late yesterday afternoon flying the American flag. On arriving at the narrows a salute of 21 guns was fired. As soon as the salute was finished the American flag was hauled down. The Vizcaya's salute was not returned from either Fort Wadsworth or Fort Hamilton.

Surgeon Jurad of the Vizcaya reported that the Vizcaya had 18 officers and 466 crew, making a total of 483 on board.

Two tugs loaded with newspaper reporters accompanied the vessel through the narrows. Hundreds of people lined the adjacent shores. The soldiers at the forts could be seen surrounding the guns on the steep bluffs at Fort Wadsworth. The Vizcaya anchored off Tompkinsville, S. I.

Immediately Castle William, on Gov ernor's Island, saluted the Spanish cruiser Vizcaya with the customary 21 guns. Neither Fort Wadsworth nor Fort Hamilton fired a salute. They have not done so in recent years.

NEW YORK, Feb. 21 .- The funeral service over the remains of Miss Frances E. Willard, president of the World's and National Women's Christan Temperance union, took place in the Broadway Tabernacle yesterday afternoon. The service was held in this city by the official decree of the Women's Christian Temperance union.

W. C. T. U. Temple at Chicago, probably the greater portion of Wednesday next, and while enroute to the western metropolis, will also lie in state in Churchville, N. Y., Miss Willard's birthplace.

The church was crowded, among the attendants being many women from neighboring states, representing the state unions.

A great number of floral tributes had been received and these, together with palms, were used as decorations in the church. Such names as those of Helan Gould, Susan B. Anthony, Rev. Anna Shaw and many of the W. C. T. U.'s prominent world representatives were written on the cards attached to the

In pursuance of a cablegram sent by Lady Henry Somerset to Miss Katherine L. Stevenson, the corresponding secretary of the national organization at Chicago, a bunch of white roses were placed over the heart of the dead temperance reformer.

Miss Willard's request that her funeral service be simple was carried out. Portions of the scripture which Miss Willard loved most were read, her favorite hymns were sung and the Methodist Episcopal funeral service was read.

Paris, Feb. 21.-Two thousand people assembled yesterday afternoon in front of St. Pelagie prison, well known as a prison for offending journalists, to greet Henri Rochefort, editor of the Intransigeant, on entering to serve a sentence of five days imprisonment for libelling J. Reinaca, conservative deputy and editor of the Republique Française, by charging him with intending to prove the innocence of Alfred Dreyfus by the use of forged documents.

At first there were no signs of force to preserve order, but as the crowd increased a company of republican guards, headed by buglers and drummers, a detachment of police and two squadrons of cuirassiers were drawn up on each side the square in front of the prison. The troops were received with cries of "Vive l'Armee."

Court of Inquiry Into the Maine Disaster Couvenes at Havana.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21. - The naval court of inquiry appointed to investigate the Maine disaster convened at Havana today. This news came to the navy department from Admiral Sicard at Key West.

This prompt action is undoubtedly due to the express direction from Secretary Long sent Saturday to have the investigation begun at the earliest possible moment.

Captain Sigsbee was heard from yesterday. His message goes to confirm been completed and turned over to the the press reports of the events of Satur- war department. day in Havana harbor so far as they relate to the exploration of the wreck. It reads as follows:

"Only most experienced wrecking divers Did some work yesterday but with little received United States Woodford, who good humored. success. Parts of the Maine, especially presented President McKinley's disthe superstructure and connections, are one confused mass of metal." The statement relative to experienced divers is explained at the navy department as no reflection upon the men now engaged in the work, being only volunteers from the enlisted men and not experienced divers.

Secretary Long said late yesterday, after looking over his telegraphic and vice for the victims of the Maine. A mail correspondence, that it contained nothing of importance beyond the dis- by Rev. The plan had been for the court to meet at Key West, and after doing such work as was possible there, to proceed to Havana. But Mr. Long thought it was desirable to have the court proceed at once to Havana, where the inquiry could begin on the actual scene of dis-would aid in an intelligest judgment. Mr. Du Bosc, the Spanish charge'd affairs, feels that the assembling of the court of inquiry at Havana today is quite desirable, owing to the rapid rate at which the hull of the Maine is sinking in the soft bottom of the harbor.

Mr. Du Bosc expressed entire satisfaction with the plans by which the divers were operating, and said there was no justification for the talk about friction. Perfect harmony exists, he said, and on both sides, so far as he could see, there was every disposition to give the amplest facilities for investigation. Captain Sigsbee has wired navy department: "No newspaper divers have been used on wreck of the Maine. One man engaged by me was subsequently bought up by a newspaper. I declined his services. Subsequently, on his being unconditionally released, I might have used him in charge of an officer in recovering bodies, but decided not to do

Is there anything more wholesome, more beautiful, more completely pleasing than a womanly woman? Such a woman is even tempered, intelligent, strong and healthy. Health really tells the whole Health means strong nerves and strong body, and they go far toward bringing good looks and amiability.

A woman worn and wearied by the dragging weaknesses peculiar to her sex cannot be expected to find zest in any duty or amusement. Life is all one dead monotonous gloom to her. On her face is written the story of weakness and pain, The wholesomeness of health is lacking. The cheeks lack fullness, the eyes lack sparkle, the hair lacks luster.

Doctors have learned to locate nine tenths of womanly sickness in the organs that ought above all others to be strong

Sensitive women shudder at the thought of consulting a physician on such matters. A natural feeling of modesty makes them dread the examination nd subsequent stereotyped treatment by "local applications" on which most doctors insist.

Much more often than not, this is unnecessary. It should not be submitted to except as a last resort.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has cured thousands of severe cases of "fe-male weakness." It works in a natural, sensible way. It begins by subduing the inflammation that is always present. Then it strengthens and invigorates the whole body, particularly the organs distinctly feminine. It promotes regularity, cures inflammation and ulceration, and stops the debilitating drain caused by them. Of all dealers. so. Any interviews with me if printed, IN NEW YORK HARBOR.

SENTENCED ON A LIBEL CHARGE

Crowds Gathered Around the Carriage Shouting "Vive La Commune"-Procession of Three Thousand Yelling "Down With Zola"-"Death to Jews"-Police Powerless.

Paris, Feb. 21.—Two thousand people assembled yesterday afternoon in front of St. Pelagie prison, well known as a prison for offending journalists, to greet Henri Rochefort, editor of the Intransigeant, on entering to serve a sentence of five days imprisonment for libelling J. Reinaca, conservative deputy and editor of the Republique Francaise, by charging him with intending to prove the innocence of Alfred Dreyfus by the use of forged documents.

At first there were no signs of force to preserve order, but as the crowd increased a company of republican guards, headed by buglers and drummers, a detachment of police and two squadrons of cuirassiers were drawn up on each side the square in front of the prison. The troops were received with cries of "Vive I'Armee."

The crowd flocked around M. Rochefort's carriage shouting "Vive Rochefort," and "Vive la Commune," the the police being powerless to restrain them. M. Rochefort alighted, waving his handkerchief, and escorted by the people, walked to the prison gates. About fifty of his friends, including Ernest Roche, one of the deputies for Paris, the editor of Jour, and the assistant editors of the Intransigeant, accompanied him inside the building, amid continuous cheers from the populace.

The crowd meanwhile dispersed, singing the Carmagnole and shouting "Vive Rochefort," and "Vive la Commune," and completely blocking traffic on the Rue Monge. So far though there was not much excitement, the crowd being

They advised the crowd to disperse in orderly fashion, but to keep on shouting loyal cries and to reserve its strength for another occasion. M. Thiebaud eulogized M. Finally the mob dispersed, amid shouts of "Conspuz Zola" and similar cries. At least 35,000 people took part in the demonstration.

Zola's Trial Practically Ended. Paris, Feb, 21 .- The trial of M. Zola, the publisher of the Aurore, is regarded as practically ended, and M. Zola's conviction is looked upon as a foregone conclusion. Public feeling against the Jews is so overwhelming that any other DRUMMER'S QUEER STORY. Made Them Drink to His Early Grave and Survived Them All.

A hale and hearty traveling man with pink skin and white hair-a condition the system. Only 50c per bottle. For of complexion which, by the way, not every traveling man lives to reach-was renewing his youth with a party of young and festive drummers. Drinks were going round freely, and when one of the "boys" turned down his glass there was considerable remonstrance on the part of his companions at his refusal to have "just one more."

The white haired man quietly cut the discussion short by saying, "That reminds me." The old drummer flicked the ashes

He said he had had enough, and goodness knows he had. His determination was greeted most hilariously as a good joke. He steadily declined, however, though the wine was brought and set before him, but the taunts and innuendoes of his he exclaimed rather petulantly, but half in fun, 'Well, boys, I'll join you once more if you will drink to an early grave for me.' The toast was proposed uproariously and drank standing. But some how after that the fun was not so furious. Things quieted down. The men seemed to half realize that to drink to a man's death wasn't such a good joke after all, and one by one they made excuses and went off to bed." Here the old man paused.

"Did the man die?" queried he who had refused to "have another" with some interest.

"No," was the reply. "He is the only one of the five now alive to tell the tale.' -Buffalo News. A Great Fine.

Steamer North Pacific Believed by Fassengers to Be Unseaworthy. PORT TOWNSEND, Wash., Feb. 21 .-Steamer North Pacific from Seattle enroute to Alaska is still here and is likely to remain for some time. Half way across the Straits of Fuca the steamer was forced to put back on account of the heavy seas, which caused the steamer to ship large quantities of water. Then all but three of the steamer's crew deserted her and also the passengers, who numbered 120. They declined to proceed further on this steamer, as they are convinced that she is not seaworthy. The managers telegraphed to Seattle for a new crew. Unless prevented by the authorities, the managers say that they will start north as soon as the new crew arrives and the weather moderates, and that the passengers who do not want to go can stay behind, but no money will be refunded.

When asked by passengers to prevent the steamer from continuing its northward voyage, Collector of Customs Huestis said that as she had been regu-S'ier remedies are especially adapted to teeping the nerves steady, the brain clear builty licensed by the official inspector of builty licensed duly licensed offiboilers and carried duly licensed offi-cers, he would not interfere.

Kansas Pacific Liens Are Now All Wiped

TOPEKA, Feb. 21.—The final step in the programme of the sale of the Kansas Pacific railroad was taken when the entire line from Kansas City to Denver was sold under the consolidated mortgage for $8,000,000. THEY DON'T LIKE PAPER.

Savages at First Contact Regard the Fabric

When savage people first come in contact with the whites, none of the wonders that they see is regarded with more suspicion than large sheets of paper. The native is apt to regard paper as a sort of cloth, and the fact that it tears easily and is worthless for most of the purposes to which cloth is put convinces bim that it is a fraud.

One or two Kongo travelers told of the disgust with which the natives at first regarded paper. The Kongo tribes, by the way, are on the lookout for sharpers, and it is exceedingly hard work for anybody to sell them a bad quality of cutlery or cloth. Savages soon find, however, that paper is not intended to serve the purposes of cloth. Then they cease to look upon it as a fraud, but they do not think it ranks high among white man's manufactures, and they have little use for it.
Some time ago a wall known explorer was traveling in the interior of Queensland, Australia, where he met many natives who had never seen a white man

One day a crowd of natives was in the white man's camp carefully inspecting the explorer and his baggage when a newspaper happened to drop out of

The natives unfolded and spread it out on the ground. They decided that it must be an article of wearing apparel, and one of them tried it cn. He wrapped it round his shoulders like a shawl and sat down on the ground, arranging his covering this way and that and watching the faces of the crowd to see what they thought of his elegant garment, covered as it was with many thousands of curious marks.

Presently, however, an accident happened. While the savage was rearranging his shawl and trying to bring the corners together in front of him the garment began to tear at the nape of his neck. A howl from the crowd called attention to the disaster. The blanket, or whatever it was, was evidently made of the poorest sort of material.

The savage took his covering off, examined the mischief he had wrought. made the tear a little longer and then with his finger poked a hole through

ONE OF TWO WAYS

The bladder was created for one pur pose, namely, a receptable for the urine, and as such it is not hable to any form of disease except by one of two ways The first way is from imperfect action of the kidneys, The second way is from careless local treatment of other diseases CHIEF CAUSE. Unhealthy urine from unhealthy kid ney" is the chief cause of bladder troub ies. So the womb, like the b'adder, was created for one purpose, and if not doctored too much is not liable to weakness or disease, except in rare cases. It is situated back of and very close to the bladder, therefore any pain, disease or inconvenience manifested in the kidneys, back, bladder or urinary passage is often, by mistake, attributed o female weakness or womb trouble of some sort. The error is easily made and and may be as easily avoided. To find out correctly, set your urine aside for twenty four hours; a sediment or settling indicates kidney or bladder trouble. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp Root, the great kidney, and bladder remedy is soon realized. If you need any medicine you should have the best. So the womb, like the b'adder, was created for one purpose, and if not doctored too much is not liable to weakness or disease, except in rare cases. It is situated back of and very close to the bladder, therefore any pain, disease or inconvenience manifested in the kidneys, back, bladder or urinary passage is often, by mistake, attributed o female weakness or womb trouble of some sort. The error is easily made and and may be as easily avoided. To find out correctly, set your urine aside for twenty four hours; a sediment or settling indicates kidney or bladder trouble. ## THE MAINE DISASTER

Lleutenant Commander Barnett Talks of the Explosion.

COURT OF INQUIRY CONVENED.

No Experienced Divers Have Yet Examined the Wrecked Vessel-Spanish Battleship Vizcaya Enters New York Harbor and is Saluted by the Fort.

HAVANA, Feb. 21.-Lieutenant Commander Barnett of the survey boat Bache, said to a correspondent: "You want the facts. I can tell you there are 95 chances out of 100 that the investigation will show that the forward magazine of the Maine did not blow up first, if it exploded at all, and that it was not the cause of the terrific consequences that followed. The condition of the wreck when first studied and a later careful scrutiny make this an almost absolute certainty-"

ME BEGINS WORK.

Court of Inquiry Into the Maine Disaster Convenes at Havans.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21. - The naval court of inquiry appointed to investigate the Maine disaster convened at Havana today. This news came to the navy department from Admiral Sicard at Key West.

This prompt action is undoubtedly due to the express direction from Secretary Long sent Saturday to have the investigation begun at the earliest possible moment.

Captain Sigsbee was heard from yesterday. His message goes to confirm the press reports of the events of Saturday in Havana harbor so far as they rolate to the exploration of the wreck. It reads as follows:

"Only most experienced wrecking divers can do effective work on the Maine. In the upper works I can use service divers. Did some work yesterday but with little success. Parts of the Maine, especially the superstructure and connections, are one confused mass of metal."

The statement relative to experienced divers is explained at the navy department as no reflection upon the men now engaged in the work, being only volunteers from the enlisted men and not experienced divers.

Secretary Long said late yesterday. mail correspondence, that it contained nothing of importance beyond the dispatches above given. The secretary referred with satisfaction to the dispatch stating that the court of inquiry would assemble at Havana today. The plan had been for the court to meet at Key West, and after doing such work as was possible there, to proceed to Havana. But Mr. Long thought it was desirable to have the court proceed at once to Havana, where the inquiry could begin on the actual scene of disaster, and where porsonal inspections would aid in an intelligest judgment.

Mr. Du Bosc, the Spanish charge'd affairs, feels that the assembling of the court of inquiry at Havana today is quite desirable, owing to the rapid rate at which the hull of the Maine is sinking in the soft bottom of the harbor.

Mr. Du Bosc expressed entire satisfaction with the plans by which the divers were operating, and said there was no justification for the talk about friction. Perfect harmony exists, he said, and on both sides, so far as he could see, there was every disposition to give the amplest facilities for investigation.

Captain Sigsbee has wired navy department: "No newspaper divers have been used on wreck of the Maine. One man engaged by me was subsequently bought up by a newspaper. I declined his services. Subsequently, on his being unconditionally released, I might have used him in charge of an officer in recovering bodies, but decided not to do

A woman worn and wearied by the dragging weaknesses peculiar to her sex, cannot be expected to find zest in any duty or amusement. Life is all one dead monotonous gloom to her. On her face is written the story of weakness and pain. The wholesomeness of health is lacking. The cheeks lack fullness, the eyes lack sparkle, the hair lacks luster. Doctors have learned to locate nine tenths of womanly sickness in the organs that ought above all others to be strong and healthy. Sensitive women shudder at the thought of consulting a physician on such matters. A natural feeling of modesty makes them dread the examination and subsequent stereotyped treatment by 'local applications" on which most

A great number of floral tributes had been received and these, together with palms, were used as decorations in the church. Such names as those of Helan Gould, Susan B. Anthony, Rev. Anna Shaw and many of the W. C. T. U.'s prominent world representatives were written on the cards attached to the floral gifts.

In pursuance of a cablegram sent by Lady Henry Somerset to Miss Katherine L. Stevenson, the corresponding secretary of the national organization at Chicago, a bunch of white roses were placed over the heart of the dead temperance reformer. Miss Willard's request that her funeral service be simple was carried out. Portions of the scripture which Miss Willard loved most were read, her favorite hymns were sung and the Methodist Episcopal funeral service was read.

ROCHEFORT IN PRISON

Two Thousand People Greet the Editor at the Gates.

SENTENCED ON A LIBEL CHARGE

Crowds Gathered Around the Carriage Shouting "Vive La Commune"-Procession of Three Thousand Yelling "Down With Zola"-"Death to

of St. Pelagie prison, well known as a prison for offending journalists, to greet Henri Rochefort, editor of the Intransigeant, on entering to serve a sentence of five days imprisonment for libelling J. Reinaca, conservative deputy and editor of the Republique Francaise, by charging him with intending to prove the innocence of Alfred Dreyfus by the use of forged documents.

At first there were no signs of force to preserve order, but as the crowd increased a company of republican guards, headed by buglers and drummers, a detachment of police and two squadrons of cuirassiers were drawn up on each side the square in front of the prison. The troops were received with cries of "Vive I Armee."

The crowd flocked around M. Rochefort's carriage shouting "Vive Rochefort," and "Vive la Commune," the the police being powerless to restrain them. M. Rochefort alighted, waving his handkerchief, and escorted by the people, walked to the prison gates. About fifty of his friends, including Ernest Roche, one of the deputies for Paris, the editor of Jour, and the assistant editors of the Intransigeant, accompanied him inside the building, amid continuous cheers from the populace.

The crowd meanwhile dispersed, singing the Carmagnole and shouting "Vive Rochefort," and "Vive la Commune," and completely blocking traffic on the Rue Monge. So far though there was not much excitement, the crowd being good humored.

Suddenly a new gathering of 3,000 headed by M. Millevoye, Taiebaud and Regis, marched toward the Pantheon, yelling "Down with Zola," and "Death to the Jews." The police formed across the road and stopped the process of the demonstrations. M. Taieband and Millevoye began harangaing the crowd from some steps, despite the efforts of the police to dislodge them. They aded the crowd to disperse in orderly fashion, but to keep on shouting loyal cries and to reserve its strength for another occasion. M. Thiebaud eulogized M. Rockefort as "The man who will toll the knell of Jews." Finally the mob dispersed, amid shouts of "Conspuz Zola" and similar cries. At least 35,000 people took part in the demonstration.

Zola's Trial Practically Ended. Paris, Feb, 21.-The trial of M. Zola, the publisher of the Aurore, is regarded as practically ended, and M. Zola's conviction is looked upon as a foregone conclusion. Public feeling against the Jews is so overwhelming that any other result is almost impossible.

DRUMMER'S QUEER STORY Made Them Drink to His Early Grave and Survived Them All.

A hale and hearty traveling man with pink skin and white hair-a condition of complexion which, by the way, not every traveling man lives to reach-was renewing his youth with a party of young and festive drummers. Drinks were going round freely, and when one of the "boys" turned down his glass there was considerable remonstrance on the part of his companions at his refusal to have "just one more."

The white haired man quietly cut the discussion short by saying, "That reminds me.

The old drummer flicked the ashes are here tonight, only they were all feeling 'pretty good,' and there wan't any old man around to bore them with a not unsteady. Commissioner Folger is story. But along about midnight one of the father of Commander Folger of the the party turned down his glass just as United States navy. my young friend here has done. The toast was proposed uproariously and drank standing. But some how after that the fun was not so furious. Things quieted down. The men seemed to half realize that to drink to a after all, and one by one they made ex- married in this city yesterday aftercuses and went off to bed.' Here the old man paused.

"Did the man die?" queried he who had refused to "have another" with some interest.

FORCED TO PUT BACK

Steamer North Pacific Believed by Passengers to Be Unseaworthy. PORT TOWNSEND, Wash., Feb. 21 .-Steamer North Pacific from Seattle enroute to Alaska is still here and is likely to remain for some time. Half way across the Straits of Fuca the steamer was forced to put back on account of the heavy seas, which caused the steamer to ship large quantities of water. Then all but three of the steamer's crew deserted her and also the passengers. who numbered 120. They declined to proceed further on this steamer, as they are convinced that she is not seaworthy. The managers telegraphed to Seattle for a new crew. Unless prevented by the authorities, the managers say that they will start north as soon as the new crew arrives and the weather moderates. and that the passengers who do not want to go can stay behind, but no money will be refunded. When asked by passengers to prevent the steamer from continuing its northward voyage, Collector of Customs Huestis said that as she had been regularly licensed by the official inspector of boilers and carried duly licensed officers, he would not interfere.

NORTHWEST STORM.

Heaviest Snowfall In Michigan of the Season.

CHICAGO, Feb. 21.—The states of Wisconsin, Iowa and Illinois are practically snowbound. Reports from Cedar Rapids and Webster City, Ia., Freeport, Bloomington, Rockford and Galesburg, Ills., indicate an average snowfall since Saturday night of two feet. Throughout Wisconsin and northern Michigan the fall was much heavier, in fact the greatest of the season. A 40-mile gale has piled the snow into enormous drifts, completely paralyzing street railway traffic and seriously interfering with the operations of trains on the steam roads. The Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul, the Northwestern and the Wisconsin Central trains have been delayed in some instances 15 hours owing eral of the churches of the city and to the heavy drifts and steady fall of snow, which makes the use of the snow plows unavailing. The Kongo tribes, by the way, are on the lookout for sharpers, and it is exceedingly hard work for anybody to sell them a bad quality of cutlery or cloth. Savages soon find, however, that paper is not intended to serve the purposes of cloth. Then they cease to look upon it as a fraud, but they do not think it ranks high among white man's manufactures, and they have little use for it.

BREAKFAST CEREALS.

They Contain Essential Elements For Perfect Nourishment of the Body.

"Cereals and fruits should form the base of breakfast foods," writes Mrs. S. T. Rorer on "Breakfast Cereals and Ladies' Home Journal. "They will support muscylar action, preserve the heat of the body and strengthen the brain in its nervous activity. Whole or steel cut oats and whole wheat, from which our nineteenth century bread should be made, contain the essential elements for the perfect nourishment of the human body. The great objection to cereal foods is their difficulty of digestion, not from any fault of the foods, but, first, from lack of time in cooking and, second, from lack of proper mustication. Raw starches are indigestible. The first step, then, toward the digestion of starches is over the fire. Each little cell must be ruptured, and for this long and careful cooking is required. The second step to the digestion of starches is in the mouth. They are there converted from the insoluble starch to soluble sugar. It is situated back of and very close to the bladder, therefore any pain, disease or inconvenience manifested in the kidneys, back, bladder or urinary passage is often, by mistake, attributed o female weakness or womb trouble or some sort. The error is easily made and and may be as easily avoided. To find out correctly, set your urine aside for twenty four hours; a sediment or settling indicates kidney or bladder trouble. ### THEY DON'T LIKE PAPER.

When savage people first come in contact with the whites, none of the wonders that they see is regarded with more suspicion than large sheets of paper. The native is apt to regard paper as a sort of cloth, and the fact that it tears easily and is worthless for most of the purposes to which cloth is put convinces

One day a crowd of natives was in the white man's camp carefully inspecting the explorer and his baggage when a newspaper happened to drop out of H. F. R b nson, Ge rge Rau and 'oe his pocket.

The natives unfolded and spread it out on the ground. They decided that it must be an article of wearing apparel, and one of them tried it cn. He wrapped it round his shoulders like a shawl and sat down on the ground, arranging his covering this way and that and watching the faces of the crowd to see what they thought of his elegant garment, covered as it was with many thousands of curious marks.
